

Part-time Urban Planning Instructor

Department of Geography, Central Connecticut State University

The Department of Geography at the Central Connecticut State University invites applications for a part-time Urban Planning instructor to begin January 25, 2009. A Ph.D. in Geography or Planning is preferred although ABD candidates will be considered. We seek someone who excels in advanced undergraduate and graduate teaching. The course load is one to two courses per semester. We are seeking candidates who can provide quality instruction in Urban Geography, Urban Planning, and Environmental Planning. Practical experience in town/city planning and APA/CCAPA membership is a plus.

Send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching excellence, unofficial copies of university transcripts, and one reference letter to: Dr. Xiaoping Shen, Chairperson, the Department of Geography, Central Connecticut State University, 1615 Stanley Street, New Britain, CT 06050. Tel: 860-832-2794, Fax: 860-832-3140, Email: shenx@ccsu.edu (please put "Urban planning position" in your subject area). Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled.

The department is particularly interested in and values candidates who have experience working with students from diverse backgrounds, along with a demonstrated commitment to improving access and the conditions in higher education for less represented students.

Central Connecticut State University aggressively pursues a program of equal employment and education opportunity and affirmative action. Members of all underrepresented groups, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities are invited and encouraged to apply.
